

Defence Grey Series Identity Card

Privacy Statement

The Department of Defence (Defence) must abide by the Information Privacy Principles contained in the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth), which, among other things, sets out how Defence is lawfully permitted to collect, store, use and disclose personal information. The following privacy statement is provided in accordance with Information Privacy Principle 2 of those Principles.

The personal information collected in this form will be used for the production of Defence Grey Series Identity Cards and managing your access to Defence premises. Such information is being collected in accordance with Chapter 2:61 of the Defence Security Manual (DSM) - Access Control and Identity Management. The DSM is established under Defence Instructions (General) (DI(G)) ADMIN 20-29 – Defence Security Manual and DI(G)s are issued with the authority of the Chief of the Defence Force and Secretary under section 9A of the Defence Act 1903 (Cth) for members of the Australian Defence Force, and with the authority of the Secretary under section 20 of the Public Service Act 1999 (Cth) for Defence Australian Public Service employees.

The information collected in this form may also be used by, and disclosed to, other persons, bodies or other security, intelligence or law enforcement agencies within the Defence Investigative Authority (DIA) and outside Defence; specifically to Defence or contracted personnel such as Pass Office Operators, Pass Office Management and Pass Office Server Administrators where such use or disclosure is necessary to achieve the production of Defence Grey Series Identity Cards. The Defence Security Authority and Defence Security Officers may require information captured for the purposes of security investigations.

Defence will not use or disclose the personal information other than for a purpose described above without ensuring that it has your consent to do so (either expressly or implied). However, you should be aware that Defence may be required to use or disclose personal information, without consent, if:

- a. the use or disclosure is necessary to prevent or lessen a serious and imminent threat to the life or health of you as the individual concerned or another person;
- b. the use or disclosure is required or authorised under law;
- c. the use or disclosure is reasonably necessary for the enforcement of the criminal law or of a law imposing a pecuniary penalty, or for the protection of public revenue; or
- d. the use is directly related to the purpose for which that information was collected.

For further information relating to the collection, storage, use or disclosure of personal information by Defence in relation to the Defence Grey Series Identity Card, please contact the Directorate of Base Projects and Plans (DBPP).

