'Reg' was a graduate of No 23 RAAF Staff Course (1969) and a long-standing member of the RAAF Staff College Association.

Reg commenced his distinguished Air Force career in 1950, joining as an Air Cadet. He commissioned as a Navigator in 1953 and received a Queen's Commendation for Valuable Air Service in 1966.

Reg was the Commanding Officer of the School of Air Navigation in East Sale, Assistant Air Attaché in Washington USA, Officer Commanding RAAF Base East Sale. He retired in July 1986 as Director-General Resource Management.

Reg was 91 years of age and is survived by his four sons.

Reg's son, Brian Gillard has organised a funeral service at RMC Duntroon on Saturday 16 December commencing at 1000 hours.

A military funeral has not been requested. However CHAP Cameron West has been organised for support and Mick O'Donnell will be officiating.

I regret the very late notice of Reg's service, due late receipt of the contents of this communication.

Stay well,

Ian Pearson
