

Vale Air Commodore David 'Dave' John Schubert (38 Course – 1984)

In his distinguished career Dave enlisted as an aircrew trainee in 1966, undertook Number 79 Pilot Course, 2 Flying Training School at Pearce and Number 42 Navigators Course, School of Air Navigation at East Sale. He flew in P-3B Orion aircraft in Australia with No 11 Squadron and on exchange in New Zealand, with No 5 Squadron.

Notable appointments include:

- Commanding Officer, Officer Training School, Point Cook from 1984-1986
- Director Air Power Studies Centre, Canberra In 1990
- Commandant, RAAF Staff College, Fairbairn 1994-1995
- Director General Scientific and Technical Analysis, Defence Intelligence Organisation, Canberra 1996-1998
- Director General Command and Support Systems, Canberra 1998.

Dave retired from the Air Force on 25 June 2001.